Dear OAPBA Member:

This letter is to serve as a reminder it won't be long 'til we meet again for our 1967 Ohio AP Broadcasters Association Annual Spring Convention.

We will meet June 9, 10, and 11 at the Carrousel Inn at 8009 Reading Road in Cincinnati. I hope you will keep those dates free since this promises to be a great weekend for you, your wife and even the kids.

Your President - Bob Carano - of WFMJ - Youngstown, Yours Truly and others have scheduled what we hope will prove to be a very informative and enjoyable convention.

On Friday night, you will check in at the Carrousel, register for the convention with my secretary, Barbara Quinlin, in the lobby, then head for the Hospitality Room (1001) where His Honor, Mayor Walton Bachrach will be there, along with others, to greet you.

On Saturday following our noon luncheon, we will hear an address by prominent Cincinnati Attorney Arnold Morelli, former First Assistant U. S. Attorney here, who will speak on "The Miranda Decision - The Exploding Rights Of The Accused." A question and answer session will follow his remarks. Following this Al Dopking will take over with our wire study and critique session.

On Saturday night, our banquet. Bob Carano has come up with a top nationally known speaker for this occasion. He's Harold Weisberg, author of a series of books on the Kennedy assassination entitled "Whitewash." His books pertaining to the Warren Commission report are the most controversial yet.

On Sunday morning, our Brunch and Business Session featuring election of officers, etc.

Prices for members only $18.50 without lodging; $7.50 additional for your wife and $5.00 for each child if they attend the banquet.

Enclosed you will find a Carrousel folder with map on front, plus a reservation postcard.

Make your plans now to join us in Cincinnati on June 9, 10, and 11.

Cordially,

Don Webb
